Attorney General Bruning and Paper Tiger Shredding Host Shredding Station

LINCOLN- Attorney General Jon Bruning today announced Paper Tiger Shredding will join the Attorney General's Office to provide Nebraskans free document shredding at the Nebraska State Fair on Labor Day. Secure, industrial shredding services will be available at the State Fair's main gate and at the north gate off of Fonner Park Road, from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Monday, September 2.

"Protecting Nebraskans from identity theft is top a priority for my office," said Bruning. "Shredding documents with identifying information is a proactive way for Nebraska consumers to protect themselves."

Nebraskans are encouraged to shred outdated documents with identifying information such as:

- Debit/charge card receipts
- Bank account statements
- Insurance or Social Security benefit statements
- Credit offers
- Old bills
- Cancelled checks

Additional information about identity theft, Internet safety and other consumer issues is available at the Attorney General's Office Exhibition Hall booth daily until the close of the fair.
